

Australian Shanghai – The Big Four and more

Chrysler old and now

Great World Theatre – in 1929 Australian born Chinese Yinson Lee arranged the first Beauty Pageant in Shanghai in association with a fund-raising exhibition for the Leprosy Hospital.

Kwok Bew house

5/24 Lixi Lu
Changning

The founders of Wing On, built two mansions side by side.

Now Shanghai Foreign Affairs Department at 1418 Nanjing W Rd.

Sincere Department Store, opened in 1917 by an Chinese-Australian Ma Ying Bew.

The building was designed by Lester Johnson & Morris.

Wing On Department Store, opened in 1918 by the Kwok Brothers. Designed by Palmer & Turner.

Sun Sun Department Store, opened in 1923 by Liu Xiji and Li Minzhou.

Designed by CH Gonda.

Xian Qiang Fang
Fourth Floor, 600 Jiujiang Road
The restaurant and ballroom of the former Wing On Department Store

Paramount 百樂門

-popular space for Chinese Australians including Daisy Kwok and May Ann Wang to present themselves in the public.

Paramount Ballroom
(The Paramount)

The casino opened in 1933, attracted numerous celebrities.

Located in the Shanghai Jing'an District Yuyuan Road No. 218, Huashan Road intersection, east of Jing'an Temple .

